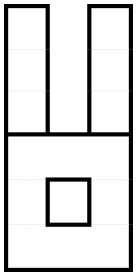
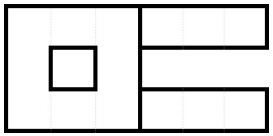
Shining One's Own Light





SETTING: SUN, SETTING BEHIND A LINE OF TREES

When I am light casting, earth yielding;

Then I am enlightening others while also providing shade, decreasing my light, and becoming dimmer and dark while entering the center of a yielding earth.

Inside, I am gathering into one unity by heaven's leading impulse (using enlightenment while organizing the people in a way that offers concealment to others so that everyone can relate to and harmonize with me, and so that I am only exposing injuries with a measure of broad inclusiveness); and Outside, I am storing and using the spirit of earth's heavenly yield (not using an excessive amount of enlightenment, not allowing my own enlightenment to control every situation, and leaving some things without examination so that the inclinations of others are not doubtful, discontented, and splitting away from me).
